

Since I pay for my phone bill, I have all rights to determine who I want to receive calls from. I chose not to receive calls from business telemarketers. Business need to market their product another way.